

Pepacton Farms

CHEDDAR CHEESE

Producing fine dairy products through organic, holistic, regenerative practices that promote longevity & sustainability for our cattle, farm and community, Pepacton Farms is a family-owned & operated dairy in Bovina, NY. Preston Post is a 4th generation dairy farmer, opening Pepacton Farms Creamery on the farm to share the family's bounty with the community.

Inspired by a profound love and respect for the land, the cattle and the legacy of dairy production in Bovina, today the creamery honors the with the historic tie-stall barn while embracing the future with technology & quality standards in the creamery. We're excited to share our love for farming & commitment to quality with our community.
