One Family, One Farm, One Breed

Our History 1958-2019
In 1958 Philip Jr. and Richard I. Coombe brought the first registered Aberdeen Angus cattle to the farm on South Hill which had been in their family for two generations. Beginning with those first six cows their purebred herd now numbers more than 300 head on 1,800 acres 100 miles north of New York City in the Catskill Mountains. Members of the fifth generation of the Coombe family now assist with the farm operations.
